

Julie A. Armstrong Psy.D.

152 So. Lasky Drive • Penthouse Suite
Beverly Hills, Ca 90212
310.273.9190 • dreamdoc@mac.com
www.psychologyexpertwitness.com

Curriculum Vitae

Education

Psy.D. Pepperdine University June 1996.
Dissertation: Childhood Abuse & PTSD in Nurses.

M.N. University of California, Los Angeles, June 1990.

B.S.N. Consortium of California State Colleges and Universities, June 1988.

Specialty post-graduate study includes Infant Observation (age birth to 3 years) psychoanalysis and forensic assessment.

Professional Experience

Present Private Practice, Licensed Psychologist and Clinical Nurse Specialist. 6/96- Present.

Santa Monica College Psychologist. 8/99-6/2007.

Psychosocial Resource Nurse: Harbor-UCLA Trauma Center 2/92-6/99.

Registered Nurse: UCLA Neuropsychiatric Hospital & Institute. 4/83- 8/93.

Teaching Experience

University of Phoenix, Associate Faculty (currently on inactive status). 6/94-2007.
Undergraduate and Graduate level courses.

California State University, Dominguez Hills, Associate Faculty. 6/90-1999.
Undergraduate and Graduate level courses.

California State University, Northridge, 6/95-1/96.

Research/Presentations/Appearances

Wicked Attractions the Investigation Discovery (ID) Channel, Expert on camera Psychologist for the episode Blood Brothers (originally aired August 4, 2008), and The Golden Years, (originally aired August 16, 2009). M2 Productions. A third episode is scheduled to air July 9, 2010, (unnamed).

An Overview of the Work of Jacques Lacan: A comparison with the work of Bernard Bail, unpublished, 2006.

The Irony of Darwin: Infant Personality Development . Presented at the American Psychological Association, Division 39 Annual meeting, Minneapolis, MN, 2003.

Identification of Suicidal Fantasies in Virtual Reality Simulation Games 9/21-23 1999, Federal Bureau of Investigation, Quantico, Va. (Paper published by the FBI in Collected Papers on Suicide and Law Enforcement, 2000.)

The More Dead: Investigating the Murders in the Mexican Maquila International Association of Forensic Sciences, Aug. 1999. (Co-presented with Patrick Callahan, Ph.D.)

El Depredadors: Murder in Mexico Presented at the 5th Annual International Investigative Psychology Conference, London 9/98. (Abstract published in 5th Annual International Investigative Psychology Conference Proceedings).

Licensure

Licensed Psychologist, California (Ca Psy 16001)
Registered Nurse, California (RN363062)
Certified Clinical Nurse Specialist California (CNS 004)
Qualified Medical Evaluator, California

Content Expert, California Board of Psychology
Expert Witness, California Board of Registered Nurses
Registrant, National Register of Providers in Psychology

Additional information or references available upon request.